Beyond the Finish Line:

Exploring Running as a Hobby in Australia

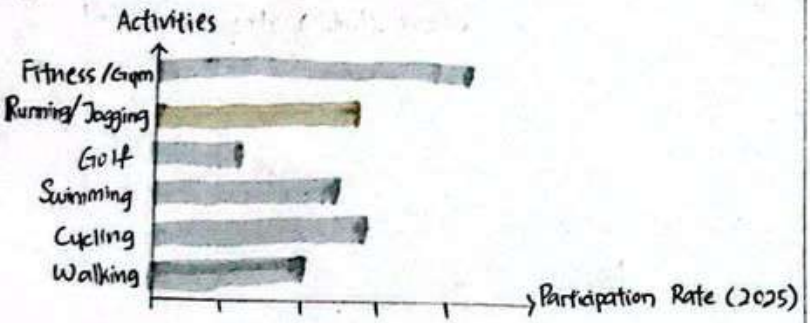

Who Runs, why they run, and where running happens

Introduction

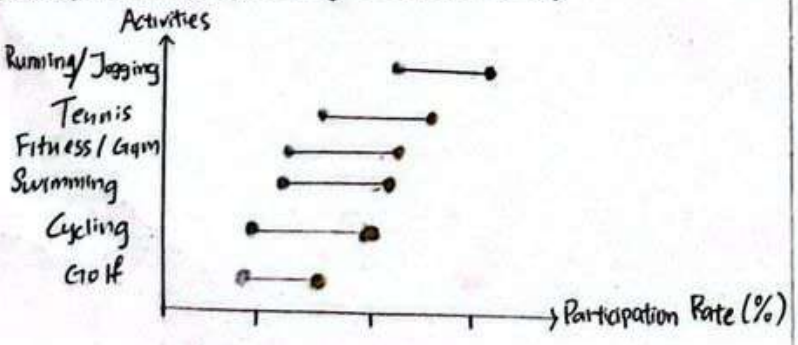

- Running is one of the most popular hobbies in Australia.
- This dashboard explores participation, people, and running events using data from various sources.

How does running compared with other popular activities?

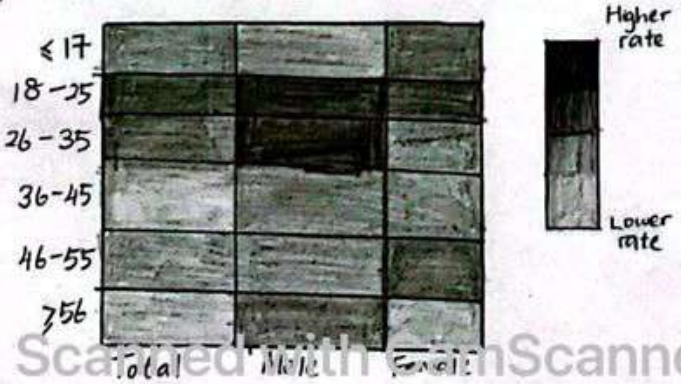

Has running participation changed?

(Participation rate by activity (2024 vs 2025))

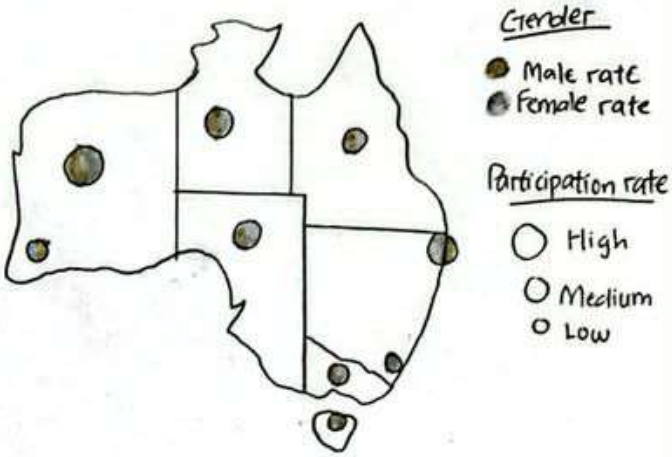

Which age groups participate most?

(Participation rate (%))

Gender Participation Gap Across Australian States and Territories

What motivates people to run?

(Main motivation for running (Adults))

Where are Australia's biggest running events?

(Top running events by number of finishers, 2025)

Conclusion

Running is more than just exercise, it brings peope together, supports physical and mental wellbeing, and remains a popular hobby in Australia.

Scanned with CamScanner